

Scottish Sports Horse Loose Jumping Championship 2010

20 horses turned out at Ingliston Equestrian and Country Club to participate for the champion prize money of £1000 which went to Harry Airds "Ben Nevis". (Concretto x Goodtimes) Born at Balcormo Stud and bred by Ben Wentnick the three year old colt impressed the judges with his correct conformation, flashy paces and the good technique to his jump, the bay colt also picked up the best turnout prize. The second place went to the loudly marked chestnut colt "Goldbreaker" by "Heartbreaker" out of a Jus De Pomme mare owned by Mrs M Crocket on a score of 189 points, with the third place going to the "Calvaro" daughter "Hazel" out of a Ramiro Z mare, bred by Nicola Gillespie and presented on the night by owner J Ireland who traveled from Northumberland. Hazel a true to type daughter of the recently deceased Olympic Calvaro showed a tremendous quality to her canter and great power in her jump. In fourth place was Mrs J Picken's "Brooklyn" by Indorado out of an Alexis Z x Concorde mare with 176 points. Fifth and sixth places went to Balcormo Farm Partnership's "Billionaire by Larino out of Palace Purple by Radiator and the Chelanno Z daughter "Bespoke" who gained Ster at the 2009 mare and youngstock gradings who also picked up the additional prize of being the highest scoring homebred filly with 170 points. On an equal score in seventh place was The VDL Tenerife daughter "Bohemian Rhapsody" out of a Nairobi mare owned by Lucy Maule of North Berwick bred by Solaris Sport Horses with the last of the prizes for the best Home Bred colt going to Des Le Marquand's "Bentley"

Ben Nevis 2009 Loose Jumping Champion